

“Something’s different about you.”

It could only be one thing ...

Fraxel treatment turns back the clock. Imagine going back to a time before you worshipped the sun, before teenage hormones made your skin break out, before your little one was even a glimmer on the horizon. Imagine waking up and not only feeling 10 years younger, but also looking it. Now imagine your friend asking you why you look so radiant, and you honestly answer – it's Fraxel treatment.

FRAXEL SKIN SCIENCE IS A COMPLETE SKINCARE SOLUTION

“No one can tell I’ve spent a lifetime worshipping the sun.”

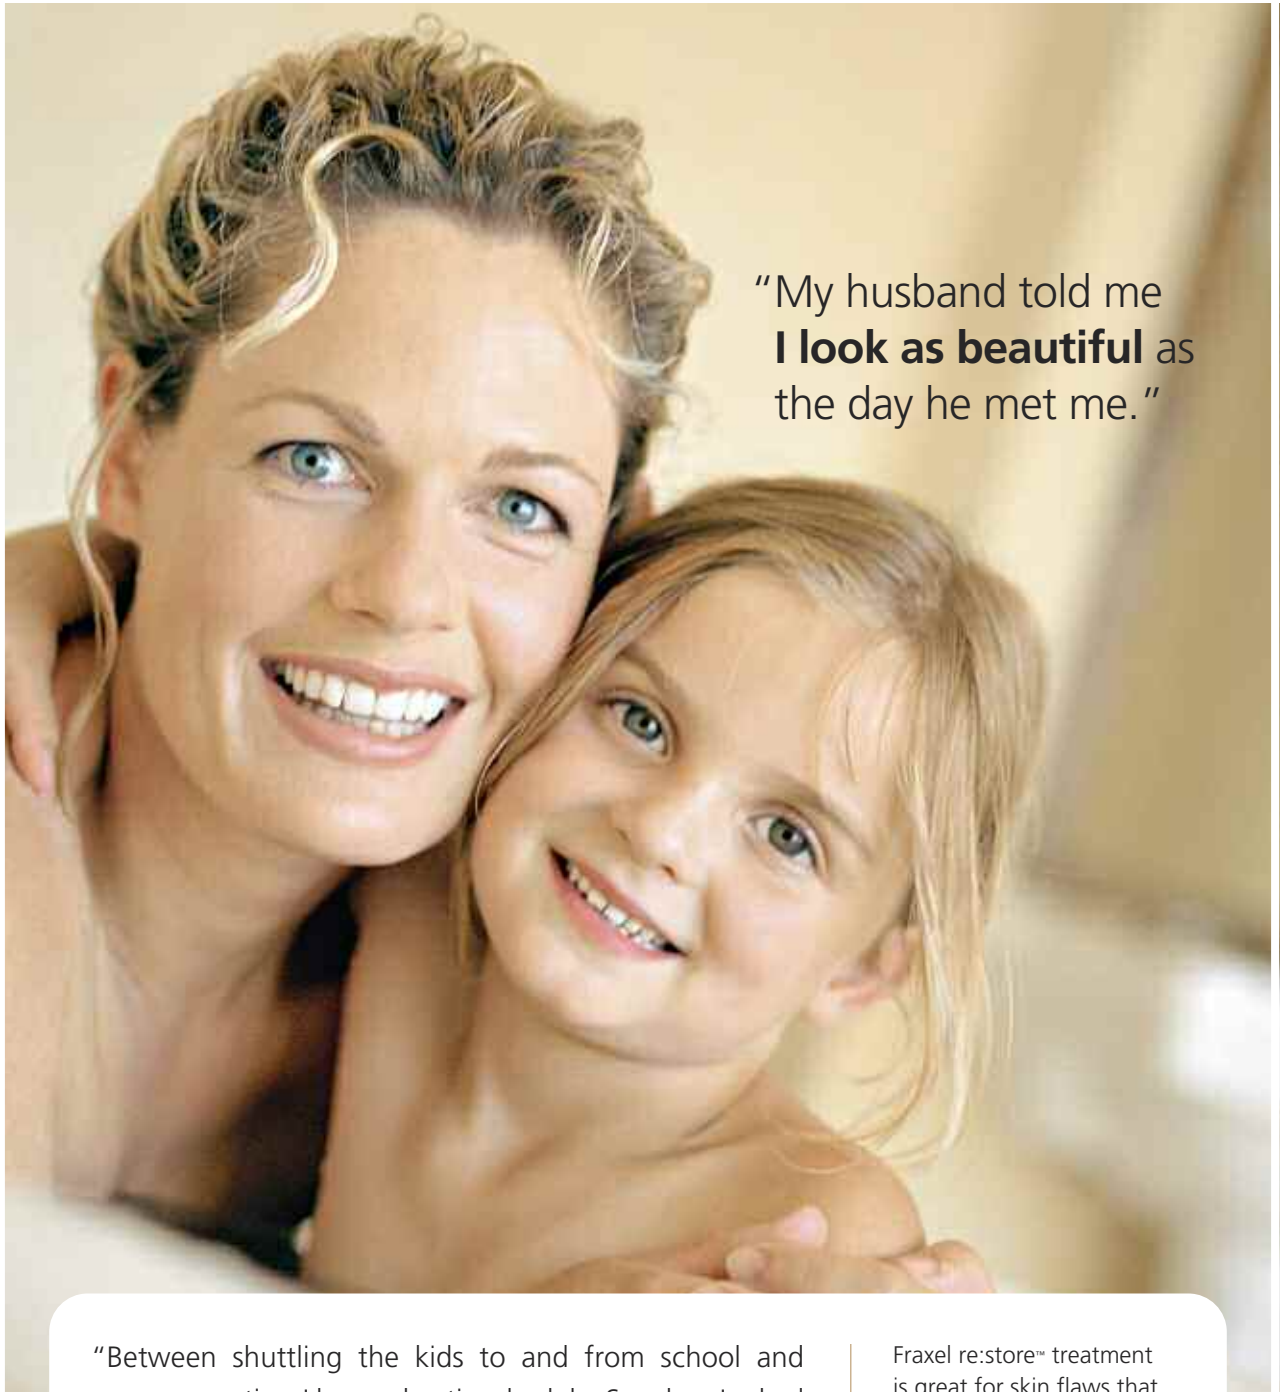

“When I was a teenager, I would go to the beach and lie out as long as I could to get that golden tan. Since I’ve had the Fraxel treatment, I don’t have any more brown spots or wrinkles around my eyes.”

“My husband told me
I look as beautiful as the day he met me.”

“Between shuttling the kids to and from school and soccer practice, I have a hectic schedule. So when I asked my dermatologist what I could do for my acne scars, he recommended Fraxel re:store™ treatment. After a few sessions, I was thrilled with the results, and I was able to pick the kids up right after each treatment.”

age 34 | Rose S., super mom, Los Angeles, CA

Fraxel re:store™ treatment is great for skin flaws that aren't due to the aging process, such as acne scars and discoloration caused by pregnancy-related hormone fluctuations (melasma).

"No one can guess my age."

"A facelift was not an option, because I felt that I really didn't want to have surgery. The results have been overwhelming; all my friends and family have asked what I've done to my face. They knew that I hadn't been out of commission for a very long period of time."

age 63 | Sarah R., retired, Chicago, IL

Fraxel re:pair™ treatment is geared toward women in their 50s and 60s who are looking for a significant resurfacing procedure to treat deeper wrinkles and skin laxity.
